Vector Asset Management User Manual

Copyright © Vector Networks Technologies Ltd, Hi Resolution Systems Ltd, and MetaQuest Software Inc.

The Web Client 146

Chapter 15
Software Distribution 149

Appendix A
Error Messages

Chapter 1:

CHAPTER 1

Chapter 2: Creating Sites

Before you can use Vector AM to manage the PCs

following account, and enter the account details installed from the Vector AM CD; Microsoft Access

Access

CHAPT

Chapter 3:

Chapter 4: Managing Sites

Vector Asset Management collects information about managed PCs into one or more Sites. When you create a Site using the Site Creation Wizard, it

Site Summary

2 In the Offline Areas dialog, click the Add button.

Specifying a Global Site

The Database Fields Dialog

The Database Fields dialog is displayed when you

2

3

Chapter 6:

2 To cancel the comparison, select None in the Compare with list.

CHAPTER 7

Chapter 8: User Prompting

To distribute Prompt files:

1

•

Chapter 9:

2

- Import Application to import identification rules from a text file. Use this to transfer modified and

Chapter 11:

5

Unless the command line specifies an alternative location, exported reports are written into the Generated Reports subfolder of the Vector AM

You can use the * and % characters as

CHAPTER 14

CHAPTER 14

To add an Offline Area to the Portal:

Chapter 15: Software Distribution

PC Remote Control

Vector AM is fully integrated with Vector's companion product, PC-Duo Remote Control. It is

6

Chapter 17:

6 The Network Share Point dialog lists the share points available for use. Select the Share Point of the Offline Area and click the OK button to start the installation.

7 When the installation is complete, a message is

b

To manage this, Vector AM uses separate settings to control how the inventory operations work with Macintosh Clients. Use the Specify Macintosh Settings operation to enable and disable Macintosh support in Vector AM and to control the inventory information held for Macintosh Clients.

To specify inventory settings for Macintosh Clients:

1 In the Site Management folder of the Vector AM

Appendix B: Installation Commands

APPENDIX C

Creating 69
Customizing 69, 70
Customizing Software
Inventory

REF Files 85
Releasing Jobs 76

Planning 121
Pre- and Post-Processing
Commands 157